Orders will be accepted until December 13, 2024, species marked with an * have limited quantities.

When available quantities are spoken for a waiting list will be created. Unfortunately, there is no guarantee you will receive any seedlings.

Seedlings will be available for pickup at Saddle Hills County Administrative Building, and you will be contacted for pick up date and time.

We reserve the right to substitute within similar species (ie. Spruce may be Hybrid/Blue/White etc.) due to potential availability issues.

Minimum order is one bundle or tree (if applicable), and orders must be placed per bundle.

Tree Planting Agreement

On a two by two grid to represent the quarter sections in question, draw significant geography and features, and indicate the location you do not want to be sprayed. Attach this drawing to the form. Use the following shorthand to indicate landmarks:

F.S. - Farmstead

D. - Dugout

C. - Culverts

S. - Shelterbelts

XX. - Waterruns

G. - Garden

Trees purchased through the Saddle Hills County Tree Seedling Program must be:

- Planted within the boundaries of Saddle Hills County;
- Planted on land which the participant owns and pays municipal taxes on;
- Planted a minimum of 10 ft from the boundary of any County Right-of-Way;
- Planted at least 15 m away from any power line, if the planted tree will grow in excess of 13 m in height.

By signing and submitting this form, you agree all the stipulations listed above have been met.

Exceptions to planting restrictions may be approved by the Administration on an individual basis.
